

ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY

Poşetsan Ambalaj A.Ş. adopts the principle of being sensitive to the environment throughout its activities and services as well as managing its operations to leave a clean environment and future to the next generations.

In this context, Poşetsan Ambalaj A.Ş.;

- Fulfills the requirements of relevant environmental regulations,
- Takes necessary measures to minimize the environmental pollution which may arise from its activities,
- Prevents the pollution at source and minimizes its impact on the environment,
- Carries out the activities related to disposal and recovery of its wastes in accordance with the regulations,
- Follows and utilizes new technologies in order to minimize use of natural resources and new waste generation,
- Works on determining potential risks in terms of the environment and takes measures related to such risks and minimizes them.
- Gives necessary training to the employees and the business partners in order to develop their sense of environment and making them adopt this as a life philosophy
- Constantly improves and develops its environmental performance, constitutes our environmental policy .

Kazım GAMGAM

Chair of the Board of Directors